52 PIECES

by Kathleen Edwards

52 PIECES is a darkly humorous tale of two sisters, Galen and Kate, in battle over a family secret that has kept them estranged from their father for nearly 10 years.

With word that his colon cancer has spread, Kate needs to reconcile what is left of her family and fast, but Galen won’t give in without a fight. Galen has little aspirations beyond building diorama’s and acting out complicated scenarios with celebrity cutouts; residue of an adolescence stunted by the death of their mother at the age of 11. Kate, inseparable from her father until his incarceration for arson two years later, was left to care for Galen at only 18. Kate is torn between loving her father and loyalty to her sister. Will the bond of blood survive the worst? Or will one of them finally snap and make a break for a life beyond their living room? Find out this summer; this is one Black Comedy you won’t want to miss!

All profits after recoupment will be donated to the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Canada.
