AFTERNOON TEA WITH JANE AUSTEN

by Tali Brady

Directed by Bruce Lambie

AFTERNOON TEA WITH JANE AUSTEN is a solo show about the life of one of the most popular authors in the English language.

Dissatisfied with her biographers, Jane Austen returns to tell the story of her life - Over a cup of tea, of course. We learn about her family, romances and her struggles to write and publish such beloved novels as Pride and Prejudice and Sense and Sensibility.

After over a year of overdosing on Jane Austen research and gallons of tea, playwright and actor Tali Brady teams up with award-winning director Bruce Lambie to create a funny, touching portrait of one of the most influential literary minds of the 19th century.
