DALE BEANER AND THE TURTLE BOY

AT ROYAL ST GEORGE, JUNE 30 - July 11 2010

TORONTO, ON - Baseball. Of all the lessons the game imparts on the field– teamwork, perseverance, patience – there is a strong lesson to be learned in the stands as well. That lesson, of course, is proper parenting. Devon Hyland (Second City Theatricals, A Night at the Improv) and Connor Thompson (Lusty Mannequins, Theatresports) have refined through hours of improv a funny ha-ha All-Star game where the action is in the crowd, on the field, and in the booth. Dale Beaner and the Turtle Boy: an hour-long two-man eight-character play - part of the 2010 Toronto Fringe Festival.

Turtle Boy Sweeps The Press!

“Dale Beaner and the Turtle Boy is one of the best written, most highly polished comedies of this or any other Fringe.”

– The Chronicle Herald

“It is unlike anything you have ever seen, beautifully executed and uproariously funny.”

– twisitheatreblog.com
