

For Immediate Release: May 7 to July 11, 2010 • Please add to your listings/announcements

"You are what you eat!"

Moon In June Productions

presents

Eve's Garden

By Dorothy Lichtblau

"Eve's Garden", is a re-telling of the myth of Adam and Eve that at its core is a love story. No longer in the sacred garden, Eve is determined to prove that she was unjustly banished. Though feisty and resolute about winning back all she cherishes, Eve finds the forces of good and evil are trickier than she imagined.

The play is a comedy about love, sex, sensuality, sexuality, and the impossibility of absolute truth and knowledge.

EVE'S GARDEN

Presented by Moon In June Productions

As part of

Written and Produced by Dorothy Lichtblau

Directed by Heather Dick

Director of the highly successful North American premiere of THE ART OF LISTENING by Brazilian playwright Carla Faour at last year's Toronto Fringe Festival

Friday July 2 @ 9:15 PM

Saturday July 3 @ 12:30 PM

Tuesday July 6 @ 6:45 PM

Wednesday July 7 @ 4:15 PM

Thursday July 8 @ 9:15 PM

Friday July 9 @ 6:15 PM

Sunday July 11 @ 1:15 PM

All tickets are $10 at the door. Box Office opens one hour prior to showtime.

Book in advance by calling the Fringe Hotline at (416)966-1062 or online at www.fringetoronto.com

For show information, please visit www.moon-in-june-productions.ca

Media Contact:

Moon In June: Dorothy Lichtblau mooninjuneproductions@gmail.com (647)343-0573

Fringe Publicity: fringe@flip-publicity.com (416)553-7710 x321