RAVEN FOR A LARK

Written and directed by Elise Newman

RAVEN FOR A LARK invites you into a twisted world of obsession, lust, and method acting. Join us backstage where two ruthless actors are getting a little too caught up in a production of Titus Andronicus, Shakespeare's bloodiest tragedy.

Adam Bradley plays Charlie, a disgruntled actor who discovers that method acting can have devastating repercussions. Shelley Liebembuk reprises the role of Nina (Ottawa Fringe 2008), a wide-eyed Vivien Leigh wannabe with a fondness for knives and denial.

Told through quirky intersecting monologues, RAVEN FOR A LARK is a twisted look at ambition, art, sex, and power. "Devilishly creepy... a must-see" (Ottawa Citizen).
